AIDS TO TABLE USE

ALL ESTABLISHMENTS VERSUS ESTABLISHMENTS WITH PAYROLL

In tables 1 and 7 of this report, data are presented for two major categories of establishments: All establishments and establishments with payroll.

All establishments includes those with no payroll and those with payroll. By subtracting the appropriate data (number of establishments and receipts) for establishments with payroll from that for all establishments, data for establishments with no payroll are derived.

As in the table below for individual proprietorships:

1 518 (Number of total establishments)
—993 (Number of establishments with payroll)
525 (Number of establishments with no payroll)

Receipts of the 525 establishments is $7,561(000).

For several kinds of business, data are not shown for all establishments. Instead, a double asterisk () appears (see Abbreviations and Symbols). This situation occurs because the data come from two sources, and one source classifies by kind of business in greater detail than the other.

For the establishments with no payroll, the Bureau of the Census obtains on computer tape limited information extracted by the Internal Revenue Service from Federal income tax returns. Classifications for establishments with payroll come from Census Bureau records developed from one of the Bureau's mail canvasses. The establishments with no payroll are coded in less detail than the establishments with payroll Therefore, the combined data for all establishments (establishments with no payroll plus establishments with payroll) are presented in less kind-of-business detail than are data for establishments with payroll alone.

DOLLAR VALUES

All dollar values in this report are expressed in current dollars, i.e., 1977 data are expressed in 1977 dollars.

INTRODUCTION

HISTORY OF THE ECONOMIC CENSUSES

The economic censuses are comprehensive and periodic canvasses of the Nation's industrial and business activities. Taken by the Census Bureau, a part of the U.S. Department of Commerce, the censuses provide a detailed statistical profile of a large segment of the national economy.

The first economic census of the United States was conducted as part of the 1810 decennial census, when inquiries on manufacturing were included with the census of population. All other decennial censuses through 1900, except that in 1830, contained questions on manufacturing. In 1904 the quinquennial census of manufacturing began. It was conducted every fifth year until 1920 and every second year from 1921 to 1939. Although some distributive trade data were collected in the decennial census of 1840, the first census of business was taken in 1929. It covered only retail and wholesale trades, but beginning with the second business census in 1933 and in succeeding censuses various services also have been included. Business censuses were subsequently taken for 1935 and 1939 and after a wartime interruption were resumed in 1948. Beginning in 1954, and continuing in the censuses of 1958, 1963, 1967, and 1972, the business censuses have been conducted concurrently with the censuses of manufactures and mineral industries. Beginning with the 1967 censuses, Congress authorized the economic censuses to be taken at 5-year intervals covering years ending in "2" and "7".

USES OF THE ECONOMIC CENSUSES

The economic censuses are the primary source of facts about the structure and functioning of the economy and, therefore, provide information essential for both government and business. The censuses furnish an important part of the framework for such composite measures as the national accounts. In forecasting and planning, they are especially useful in analyzing the national product in terms of the transactions that determine its size and composition. The economic censuses also provide weights and benchmarks for indexes of industrial production, productivity, and price, all of which are essential for understanding current economic developments.

Manufacturers and distributors make widespread use of the economic censuses in establishing measures of their potential markets by areas, kinds of businesses, and kinds of products. Management in various industries and trades get facts from them for use in economic or sales forecasting, analyzing sales performance, laying out sales territories, allocating advertising budgets, and locating plants, warehouses, and stores. Trade organizations use census statistics for insight into changes in the structure of industry. State and local governments use the geographic detail that describes the patterns of economic change in individual communities. Local business organizations and research groups do too.

Following every census, reports are purchased by thousands of businesses and other users; likewise, census facts are widely disseminated by trade associations, business journals, and the daily press. Volumes containing census statistics are available in most major public and college libraries.

AUTHORITY AND SCOPE OF THE ECONOMIC CENSUSES

The economic censuses are required by law under title 13 of the United States Code, sections 131, 191, and 224, which direct that they be taken at 5-year intervals. The 1977 Economic Censuses covered manufacturing, mining and quarrying, construction industries, retail trade, wholesale trade, service industries, and selected transportation activities. The next economic censuses are scheduled to be taken in 1983 covering the year 1982.

CENSUS OF SERVICE INDUSTRIES

The 1977 Census of Service Industries, part of the 1977 Economic Censuses, covered services as defined in the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual,[1] except Religious Organizations (SIC 866), Private Households (SIC 881), and governmental organizations classified in the covered industries.

The scope of the census also included SIC 4722, Arrangement of Passenger Transportation, a component of SIC Major Group 47, Transportation Services.

To simplify data presentations and comparisons of those service industries covered in previous censuses, the census of service industries is comprised of two segments:

Selected Service Industries—Data are presented for establishments subject to Federal income tax in the following classifications:

SIC code	Title
701, 3	Hotels, motels, trailering parks, and camps
72	Personal services
73	Business services
75	Automotive repair, services, and garages
76	Miscellaneous repair services
78, 79	Amusement and recreation services, including motion pictures
8072	Dental laboratories
81	Legal services
891	Engineering, architectural, and surveying services

Other Service Industries—Data are presented for establishments which are engaged in activities described above but which are exempt from Federal income tax under provisions of section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code. Data are also presented for establishments and organizations within the following classifications:

SIC code	Title
4722	Arrangement of passenger transportation[1]
702, 4	Rooming and boarding houses and membership lodging
80 ex. 8072	Health services, except dental laboratories
82	Educational services
83	Social services
84	Museums, art galleries, botanical and zoological gardens (noncommercial)
86 ex. 866	Membership organizations, except religious organizations
89 ex. 891	Miscellaneous services, except engineering, architectural, and surveying services

The basic tabulations in this report do not include data for central administrative offices (CAO's), captive warehouses, and other units which primarily service or are auxiliary to establishments within the same organizations. Data for CAO's and auxiliaries will be found in a subsequent report issued as part of the subject series of the 1977 Enterprise Statistics survey.

For the 1977 Census of Service Industries, large- and medium-size firms, plus all firms known to operate more than one establishment, were sent questionnaires to be completed and returned to the Bureau by mail. For most very small firms, including those with no paid employees, data from existing records of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA) were used instead. The two sources included basic information on location, kind of business, volume of receipts and payrolls, and number of employees. In addition, more detailed information for selected kinds of business was obtained on the various questionnaires.

Appendix A gives a more detailed explanation of census coverage and methodology.

ESTABLISHMENT AND FIRM SIZE

This report represents a recompilation of data collected in the 1977 Census of Service Industries and is divided into three categories: size of establishment, size of firm, and legal form of organization.

Size of establishment—Establishments which operated the entire year have been classified into the various size groupings used in the establishment size tables. An establishment is classified as "operated entire year" if it operated 10 months or more during the year and was in operation at the end of the year. Establishments which were temporarily or seasonally inactive at the end of 1977 were also considered as "operated entire year" if they were in operation for 10 months or more during the year. See Period operated under Comparability of 1972 and 1977 Censuses in appendix A for differences in the treatment of seasonal establishments in the two censuses.

Data for all other establishments are included in the totals for each kind of business and are separately summarized as "not operated entire year." Note that since the count of establishments in this census represents the number in business at the end of the year, the number shown in the "Establishments" column for the line "Not in business at end of year" is not included in the corresponding totals or subtotals above. Of the kinds of business that are generally seasonal in nature (e.g., amusement parks), establishments which operated less than 10 months and were either in operation or seasonally (or temporarily) inactive at the end of 1977 have been classified into abbreviated versions of the size groupings.

Receipts size—Depending on the value of receipts reported for the year 1977, establishments which operated the entire year are classified into nine receipts-size groups. For "seasonal" kinds of business, data are presented for eight additional receipts-size groups for establishments not operated the entire year and either in operation or seasonally (or temporarily) inactive at the end of 1977. As the class intervals indicate, establishments were classified by receipts-size groups after the reported receipts figures had been rounded to the nearest thousand dollars.

Employment size—Depending on the number of employees on the payroll during the pay period including March 12, 1977, establishments which operated the entire year are classified into 11 employment-size groups. For "seasonal" kinds of business, data are presented for four additional employment-size groups for establishments not operated the entire year and either in operation or seasonally (or temporarily) inactive at the end of 1977. Proprietors and unpaid family workers were not regarded as employees in determining the employment size of an establishment.

Size of firm—A firm may be either a single-establishment firm (single unit) or a multiestablishment (multiunit) firm. Firm size groups are based on aggregate data for all establishments operated by the same firm in the kind-of-business classification, group, or total for which data are presented. Data are presented based on receipts size of firm, employment size of firm, concentration by largest firms as well as for single units and multiunits (by number of establishments operated).

Single units and multiunits—Firms are classified into seven size groups based on the number of establishments operated December 31, 1977. A single unit is a firm with only one establishment engaged in economic activities. A multiunit, or a multiestablishment firm, is a firm with two or more establishments engaged in economic activities. A multiestablishment firm may, however, operate only one establishment classified in selected service industries.

Receipts size—Depending on the value of receipts reported for the year 1977, firms are classified into twelve receipts-size groups. As the class intervals in this table indicate, firms were classified by receipts-size groups after the reported receipts figures had been rounded to the nearest thousand dollars for individual establishments.

[1] Covered in economic censuses since 1967, but not previously included in total for selected services in Area reports.

Employment size—Depending on the number of employees on the payroll during the pay period including March 12, 1977, firms are classified into 10 employment-size groups. Proprietors and unpaid family workers were not regarded as employees in determining the employment size of individual establishments.

Concentration of largest firms—Data are presented separately for the 4, 8, 20, and 50 largest firms based on total receipts.

Legal form of organization—Data represent a summary for individual establishments, rather than for firms. For the method of assigning "legal form" see Comparability of 1972 and 1977 Censuses, Legal form of organization, in appendix A.

CENSUS DISCLOSURE RULES

In accordance with Federal law governing census reports, no data are published that would disclose the operations of an individual establishment or business. However, the number of establishments in a kind of business classification is not considered a disclosure, so this information may be shown even though other information is withheld.

GEOGRAPHIC AREAS COVERED

Data presented in this report cover the following geographic areas:

1. The United States
2. Each State
3. Selected standard consolidated statistical areas (SCSA's) defined as of December 31, 1977, meeting the criteria outlined in the 1975 Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas manual.[1] An SCSA is an area used to facilitate the presentation and analysis of data for concentrations of metropolitan populations. It includes two or more contiguous standard metropolitan statistical areas which meet specific criteria of size, urban character, integration, and contiguity of urbanized areas.
4. Selected standard metropolitan statistical areas (SMSA's) defined as of December 31, 1977, meeting the criteria outlined in the 1975 Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area manual.[1] An SMSA is an integrated economic and social unit with a large population nucleus. Each SMSA consists of one or more counties meeting standards of population and metropolitan character, except in New England where towns and cities rather than counties are the basic geographic units. Definitions of all the SMSA's are provided in appendix C.

APPENDIX A. General Explanation

CENSUS COVERAGE AND METHODOLOGY

Structure and method of enumeration of the 1977 Census of Service Industries—General—Firms covered in the 1977 Census of Service Industries were divided into the nonmail universe and mail universe. The coverage and the method of obtaining census information from each follow:

1. The nonmail universe consists of firms which were not required to file a regular census return and includes:

a. All taxable nonemployers, i.e., all firms with no paid employees during 1977. Receipts information for them was obtained from 1977 Federal income tax records.

The census included only those service nonemployer firms which reported a receipts volume of $1,000 or more during 1977 plus firms in operation for less than the full year with reported receipts which, if projected to an annual basis, would have reached a total of $1,000 or more. This treatment is the same as in the 1972 census. Tax-exempt establishments with no paid employees were excluded as in previous censuses.

b. Selected small employers, i.e., single-establishment firms with payroll below a specified cutoff. (The term "employers" refers to firms with paid employees as shown in the active records of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), whether or not they were subject to payment of Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) taxes.) Although the cutoff varied by kind of business, small employers generally were firms with one to three employees.

Data on receipts, payroll, and employment for "under cutoff" employer firms were generally obtained from the records of the IRS and the Social Security Administration (SSA). However, the need for specialized data for some kinds of business precluded reliance solely on these administrative records sources. For some of these classifications involving large numbers of firms, a 10-percent sample was included in the mail universe; for those involving relatively small numbers, all were included in the mail universe.

2. The mail universe consists of firms for which information was obtained basically by means of a mail canvass and includes:

a. Large employers, i.e., all employer firms above the size cutoff referred to in section 1b above. Within this category, an Annual Organization Survey is conducted to identify firms which operated establishments at more than one location and to obtain information on payroll and mid-March employment at each location. The 1976 Annual Organization Survey was used as a coverage check in the census. In the census mailing package, firms were sent a form to use in updating the list of establishments with those opened since 1976.

b. Small employers—This category consists of small firms in classifications for which specialized data requirements precluded reliance solely on administrative records sources (see 1b above).

Structure and method of enumeration of the 1977 Census of Service Industries—For industries covered in this report, except those indicated in the following paragraph, all employer firms were included in the "mail universe". The "nonmail universe" consisted only of nonemployers (see section 1 above).

The "mail universe" for Funeral Service and Crematories (SIC 726), Credit Reporting and Collection Agencies (SIC 732), Automotive Repair Shops, Except Tire Retreading and Repair Shops (SIC 753, except 7534), Museums and Botanical and Zoological Gardens (supported primarily by admission charges) (SIC 7999 pt.), and Accounting, Auditing, and Bookkeeping Services (SIC 893) consisted of all large employers (see section 2a above) and a 10-percent sample of small employers (with payroll below a specified cutoff, as described in section 1b above). All other establishments were included in the nonmail universe.

Data for nonemployer firms, for which specialized industry data were not obtained are included only in tables 1, 2, and 36 of this report. Nonemployer firms account for about 61 percent of all taxable service establishments, but only about 9 percent of total receipts of these establishments.

Method of classifying kinds of business—The service industries classifications for all establishments were based on the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual.[1] However, the method of assigning these classifications and the level of detail at which establishments were classified differed between the nonmail and mail universes as follows:

1 The nonmail universe

a. All nonemployer firms were classified on the basis of information supplied on the Federal income tax returns. They were coded in less detail than employer firms; therefore, the combined data for all establishments (nonemployer firms plus establishments of employer firms) are presented in less kind-of-business detail than are the data for employer establishments alone.

b. Selected small employers were classified on the basis of the most current census kind-of-business classification available from one of the Bureau's current surveys or the 1972 census. Otherwise, the SSA classification was used or the IRS classification based on the firm's description of its principal business activity as entered on its IRS business tax return.

If the census, SSA, and IRS classifications proved inadequate (none corresponded to a 1977 census classification in the detail required for employers), the firm was sent a brief inquiry requesting information necessary to assign a 1977 census kind-of-business code.

2. Establishments in the mail universe were classified on the basis of answers to special inquiries on the census questionnaire.

COMPARABILITY OF 1972 AND 1977 CENSUSES

The 1972 and 1977 censuses were conducted under similar conditions and procedures. However, strict comparability of the data for the two censuses is limited by the following factors:

Geographic areas—The boundaries of a number of areas for which data are shown in the 1977 census are not the same as in the 1972 census because of additions and redefinitions of SMSA's since 1972. See appendix E for titles and definitions of SMSA's as of December 1977.

Receipts—

1. Sales, occupancy, admissions, and other taxes collected from customers and forwarded to taxing authorities, included in the 1972 receipts statistics, are excluded from the 1977 receipts statistics. Studies have shown that these items were substantially underreported in the 1972 census.

2. In the 1972 census, legal service establishments were requested to report gross receipts from services provided during 1972, whether or not payment was received in 1972. As a result of a census study concerning the operating and billing procedures for such establishments, legal service establishments in the 1977 census were requested to report payments received in 1977 for services rendered, regardless of when the services were provided.

3. Receipts data published for advertising agencies in the 1972 census reflected gross receipts, including gross billings for advertising media and outside production services. The 1977 receipts data reflect commissions on media, fees, and other agency income—a more representative measure of the volume of business for such establishments.

Scope—The 1977 Census of Service Industries covered services as defined in the Standard Industrial Classification Manual, except Religious Organizations (SIC 866), Private Households (SIC 891), and governmental organizations classified in the covered industries. The scope of the census also included Arrangement of Passenger Transportation (SIC 4722), a component of Major Group 47, Transportation Services.

Other service industries (see Introduction for list of industries) were covered for the first time in 1977 as part of a major expansion in the scope of the census of service industries. Consequently, there are no data from the 1972 census to which most of these data can be compared.

Government-operated or controlled establishments are excluded from this census since such activities are covered in the census of governments. Although in the census of governments each governmental unit is treated as a single legal entity, data are published by broad functional groupings such as health, education, and social services.

Establishments owned by a governmental entity but operated by a private organization are included in this census. Establishments funded by government but whose operations are not under the control of a government entity (or board of directors appointed by such an entity or publicly elected) are also included.

Establishments without payroll which are exempt from payment of Federal income tax under provisions of Sections 501 to 521 of the IRS Code are also excluded from the scope of the census.

Legal service entities which are essentially organized for the purpose of sharing payroll and other expenses (expense-sharing associations), excluded from the scope of the 1972 census, are included in 1977. See the description for "Legal services" (SIC 81) in Kind-of-Business Classifications below for the explanation of census treatment of such associations.

Classifications—Although the classification description for SIC 7929, "Bands, orchestras, actors, and other entertainers and entertainment groups," is identical in the two censuses, its components were restructured for 1977. Consequently, comparisons of data between 1972 and 1977 for subclassifications (SIC 7929 pt.) are limited.

Legal form of organization—In the 1972 census, the legal form of organization was based on data reported directly in the censuses only for establishments of large multiestablishment companies—those with a total company employment of 250 persons or more. These large firms included information on legal form of organization in their company summary reports. The legal form of organization of all other establishments was generally decided by the type of IRS business income tax return form they filed; e.g., a business filing a partnership Federal tax return (form 1065) was assumed to be a partnership.

In 1977, the legal form of organization was determined for establishments in the mail universe on the basis of the response to the legal form of organization inquiry on the census forms. The legal form of organization of nonmail establishments was generally decided by the type of IRS business income tax return form filed.

This report presents data for service industries by the following legal forms of organization:

1. Individual proprietorship—A firm (establishment) owned by one individual.

2. Partnership—A firm (establishment) owned by two or more persons each of whom has a financial interest in the firm.
3. Professional service organization—A firm (establishment) formed under State professional association or corporation statutes.
4. Corporation—A firm (establishment) except professional service corporation, legally incorporated under State laws.
5. Other legal forms—Includes incorporated businesses as determined from administrative records, which did not respond to the legal form of organization inquiry; estates; receiverships; joint ventures; cooperatives; and other firms whose legal form of ownership is not one of those defined above.

Period operated—In the 1972 census, seasonal establishments or those temporarily inactive at the end of the year were determined to be "operated entire year" or "not operated entire year" on the basis of the length of time the establishment was owned. For example, a summer recreational camp owned for the full year but operated for only 4 months would have been considered "operated entire year." In 1977, the determination for such establishments was based on the length of time each was actively operated.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX STATUS

For the first time, in 1977, establishments covered by the census of service industries were classified based on Federal income tax filing requirements (see section on Census Coverage and Methodology above). This classification was based primarily upon the response to an inquiry on the census questionnaire. Establishments which indicated that all or part of their income was exempt from Federal income tax under provision of Section 501 or 521 of the IRS Code were classified as tax-exempt; establishments indicating no such exemption were classified as taxable. For establishments in the nonmail universe, the tax status classification was based upon administrative data.

The basic dollar volume measure for taxable establishments is "receipts" (see the Explanation of Terms section below for a definition); whereas, the basic dollar volume measure for tax-exempt establishments is "expenses" (also defined below in the Explanation of Terms section).

TREATMENT OF NONRESPONSE

Census reports included two distinctly different types of inquiries, "basic" and "special." Basic or general inquiries, which included location, kind of business, receipts (for taxable establishments), operating expenses (for tax-exempt establishments), payroll, and number of employees, were available from a combination of sources for all establishments. Special inquiries, tailored to the particular kinds of business covered by the report, were available only from establishments in the "mail universe" which completed the appropriate inquiries on the questionnaire.

Data for special inquiries in this report have been expanded in most tables to account for establishments which did not respond to the particular inquiry for which data are presented. Unless otherwise noted in the specific table, data for these special inquiries of taxable establishments have been expanded in direct relationship to total receipts, i.e., it is assumed that the characteristics of establishments not responding to the particular special inquiry are similar to establishments in the same category (publication table line) which did respond to the inquiry. For tax-exempt establishments, the same procedure was applied to expenses.

All tables in which data are expanded to account for nonrespondents include a "coverage" indicator for each publication category which shows the receipts (or expenses) of establishments responding to the special inquiry as a percent of total receipts (or expenses) of all establishments for which data are shown. Unless otherwise noted in the specific table, data are shown in this report only for categories for which the "coverage" or level of response, was 60 percent or higher; i.e., for which total receipts (or expenses) of establishments responding to the inquiry equalled or exceeded 60 percent of total receipts (or expenses) of all establishments in the category.

EXPLANATION OF TERMS

The nature of many of the activities included in this report is not commercial in the sense of a "for-profit" or proprietary business enterprise, and the terms used to describe commercial businesses often are not descriptive of such noncommercial services. However, in the aggregate measurement of the production and delivery of goods and services in the economy, an attempt is made to maintain as much conformity of measures as practicable. Therefore, while some of the data measures, concepts, or terms such as "business," "establishment," and "firm," are not usually associated with many of the noncommercial activities, it must be recognized that they are referencing an economic unit such as a physical location or legal entity involved in the production or distribution of goods or rendering of services.

Associate lawyers—These are lawyers employed by legal service establishments, and include all lawyer "members" of professional service organizations. Sole practitioners and partners are excluded.

Associate physicians/dentists—Physicians or dentists who are paid employees of establishments classified as offices of physicians or offices of dentists, respectively. Included are practicing "members" or "shareholders" of professional service organizations or corporations; excluded are proprietors or partners of unincorporated firms.

Associations of lawyers for expense sharing (SIC 81) formed solely for the sharing of expenses (including payroll) and not for the purpose of jointly carrying on their profession. ("Receipts" are not applicable for these associations since their operations are covered by reimbursements from member firms, and not considered operating receipts for legal services provided. Neither are such entities considered separate operating establishments; however, their payroll and employment data are included in statistics presented for this category.)

Associations of physicians for expense sharing (SIC 801 pt.) are not counted as establishments; only the offices of physicians that comprise such associations are included in figures for number of establishments, since it is the offices of physicians that actually provide medical services. However, payroll and employment for associations of physicians for expense sharing are included in the totals for Offices of Physicians (SIC 801).

For offices of physicians, dentists, osteopathic physicians, and other health practitioners, each physical location was regarded as a separate establishment only if it were staffed on a full-time basis.

Average admission price—Represents receipts from admissions divided by the number of paid admissions. For the years 1954, 1958, and 1963, the amount of taxes collected, which was included in the admission receipts component of this ratio, was estimated based on establishments responding only to the sources of receipts inquiry (rather than to both the sources of receipts and the admissions inquiries). For 1967 and 1972, taxes were also included in admission receipts, but were not estimated. For 1977, taxes were excluded.

Average rate per occupied room—Represents the average daily charge for rental of an individual guestroom. The value is derived through a computation using the following reported components: receipts from room rentals and number of guestrooms; weighted average percentage of occupancy (computed based on the reported percentage of occupancy inquiry); and average days operated (based on reported months in operation). The computation divides room rental receipts by the product of the other three components. Data presented on average rate per occupied room represent all establishments in business at the end of the year, although only those reporting the pertinent inquiries were used in the computation.

Capacity

1. Conventional theater capacity—Represents the maximum number of seats available to theater patrons.

2. Drive-in theater capacity—Represents the maximum number of viewing spaces available to motor vehicles.

Central administrative offices and auxiliaries—Each company included in this census was asked to identify and report separately as "central administrative offices" or "auxiliaries" those locations whose primary functions were to manage, administer, service, or support the activities of the other establishments of the company. Data for such central administrative offices and auxiliaries which primarily support the establishments covered in this report will be presented in a subsequent report issued as part of the 1977 Enterprise Statistics series of reports.

Collecting and distributing units (branch outlets, pick-up stations, terminals, depots) owned and operated by laundry and cleaning companies are considered to be integral parts of such companies, and are not treated as separate establishments. The payroll and employment of such locations are included with those of the laundry or dry-cleaning plant.

Employment size—Firms (establishments) are classified by size according to the number of paid employees (including part-time employees) for the pay period including March 12, 1977. Proprietors and partners, even though they may have been actively engaged in the operation of the firm, are not counted as paid employees in determining employment size, nor is their compensation included in payroll.

Establishment—An establishment is a single physical location at which business is conducted. It is not necessarily identical to a company or enterprise, which may consist of one or more establishments. The count of establishments in this publication represents the number in business at the end of the year.

For the most part, census of service industries figures represent a summary of reports for individual establishments rather than companies. When a census report was received from a large employer (see 2a under Census Coverage and Methodology) indicating that business was conducted at more than one location, each such location was treated as a separate establishment. Conversely, when a company's Federal income tax data were used instead of a census report, or when a company included in the 10-percent sample of small employers (see 2b under Census Coverage and Methodology) reported operations at more than one location, only one establishment was tallied in the publications. Consequently, the number of establishments published in the 1977 Census of Service Industries is understated.

When two or more activities were carried on at a single location under a single ownership, all activities generally were grouped together as a single establishment and the entire establishment was classified on the basis of its major activity and all data for it were included in that classification. However, when distinct and separate economic activities (for which different industry classification codes were appropriate) were conducted under the same ownership at a single location, and when conditions prescribed by the SIC manual for recognizing the existence of more than one establishment were met, separate establishment reports for each of the different activities were obtained in the census.

The basis for data collected from large institutions (e.g., colleges, universities, hospitals, etc.) may not be consistent within their respective industries because of differences in organization among these institutions. Ancillary activities or departments (such as bookstores, dormitories, laboratories, clinics, cafeterias, gift shops, etc.) are not always identified by these institutions as separate entities. In some cases, the entire institution, including its ancillary activities may be tabulated as a single establishment under the classification appropriate to its predominant economic activity; in other cases, each of the institution's activities may be tabulated as a separate establishment under the classification appropriate for the activity of that establishment.

Leased service departments (separately owned businesses operated as departments or concessions of another service establishment or of a retail business under another ownership, such as a separately owned shoe shine parlor in a barber shop or a beauty salon in a department store) are treated as separate service establishments for census purposes. Leased retail departments located in service establishments (e.g., a gift shop located in a hotel) are considered separate retail establishments.

Expenses (basic dollar volume for tax-exempt establishments; also shown as a special inquiry item for taxable establishments in selected SIC's)—Expenses include payroll, employee benefits, interest and rent expenses, supplies used for operating, cost of merchandise sold, depreciation expense, and other expenses allocated to operations during 1977. Expenses exclude moneys invested, capital expenditures, or outlays for the purchase or improvement of real estate. For tax-exempt establishments, expenses also include taxes and fees paid for fund raising; but exclude assessments paid to the parent or other chapters of the same organization and funds transferred to other tax-exempt organizations. For taxable establishments, expenses also include taxes, except income taxes, and exclude payments to or withdrawal by owners of unincorporated businesses.

Firm—A firm is a business organization consisting of one or more (domestic) establishments under common ownership or control. All establishments of subsidiary firms are included as part of the owning or controlling firm. For economic census purposes, the terms "firm" and "company" are synonymous.

Franchise or co-ownership groups— These are groups of motels and motor hotels which indicated a membership in a franchise or co-ownership group carrying a common name. Establishments in such groups include those operated by the franchiser and those under joint ownership with a "co-ownership" group sponsor as well as those operated by independently owned franchises. Motels and motor hotels which are only members of non-franchise referral organizations are not included.

Guestrooms (Hotels)—Guestrooms consist of the number of rooms that can be rented as separate units. In tables which present data for both hotels and motels, this term, when associated with motels, motor hotels, or tourists courts, refers to "rental units" (see explanation below). Suites of rooms which cannot be subdivided are counted as a single unit. The number of guestrooms as of December 31, 1977 was tabulated only for establishments in business at the end of the year.

Transient guestrooms consist of the number of units usually available for the occupancy of persons staying less than one month.

Residential guestrooms consist of the number of units usually available for the occupancy of persons staying a month or longer.

Paid employees for week including March 12—Paid employees consist of the full-time and part-time employees, including salaried officers and executives of corporations, who were on the payroll in the pay period including March 12, 1977. Included are employees on paid sick leave, paid holidays, and paid vacations; not included are proprietors and partners of unincorporated businesses. The definition of paid employees is the same as used in reporting on IRS form 941.

Payroll entire year—Payroll includes all forms of compensation, such as salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, vacation allowances, sick leave pay, and the value of payments in kind (e.g., free meals and lodgings) paid during the year to all employees. Tips and gratuities received by employees from patrons and reported to employers are included. For corporations, it includes amounts paid to officers and executives; for unincorporated businesses, it does not include profit or other compensation of proprietors or partners. Payroll is reported before deductions for social security, income tax, insurance, union dues, etc. This definition of payroll is the same as that used by the Internal Revenue Service for purposes of reporting on form 941.

Payroll first quarter—This item consists of payroll, as defined above, paid to persons employed at any time during the quarter January to March 1977.

Percentage of occupancy—This item, as provided by the respondent on the questionnaire, was utilized in the computation of data on "weighted average percentage of occupancy" presented in some tables of this report. The instructions for reporting this item were as follows:

1. Multiply the number of guestrooms in this establishment by 365. If operated less than a full year, use the number of days actually operated instead of 365.
2. Determine the number of rooms which were occupied each day operated. Total these figures for all days operated.
3. Percentage of occupancy is the number obtained in step 2 divided by the number obtained in step 1.

If records are not available as a basis for computing percentage of occupancy, the best estimate will be acceptable.

Primary fields of practice—Establishments reporting this item include individual lawyers (associate lawyers, sole practitioners, and partners) in the category which best described each one's primary field of specialization. If not primarily engaged in a single specialized field, a lawyer was classified as engaged in general practice.

Promotional expenditures—Consists of funds dispersed by the theater for promotion of motion pictures (including expenditures through circuit or parent organizations). Reimbursements received from film distributors were not deducted from such expenditures.

Receipts (basic dollar volume measure for taxable establishments)—Receipts include the total receipts from customers or clients for services rendered and merchandise sold during 1977, whether or not payment was received in 1977. Gasoline, liquor, tobacco, and other excise taxes, which are paid by the manufacturer or wholesaler and included in the cost of goods purchased, are also included. Receipts are net after deductions for refunds and allowances for merchandise returned by customers. Total receipts do not include sales, occupancy, admissions, or other taxes collected by the establishment directly from customers and paid directly by the establishment to a local, State, or Federal tax agency; nor do they include nonoperating income from such sources as investments or rental of real estate.

Receipts in this report do not include service receipts of manufacturers, wholesalers, retail establishments, or other businesses whose primary activity is other than service. They do, however, include receipts other than from services rendered (e.g., sale of merchandise to individuals) by establishments covered in this report.

Although the count of establishments in this report represents the number in business at the end of the year, the receipts figures include receipts of all establishments in business at any time during the year.

Receipts by source—type of customer

1. Direct consumers—Refers to individuals (except for commercial laundry work), hotels, factories, restaurants, etc.
2. Resellers—Refers to press shops, other laundries and dry cleaners, "bobtailers," etc.

Receipts from customers

1. Admission receipts—Consists of the amount paid by theater patrons for admissions, excluding any Federal, State, or local admission taxes.
2. Refreshment stands and vending machines receipts—Consists of the receipts (excluding sales taxes) of refreshment stands and vending machines located inside the theater which are operated by the theater owners.

Rental units (motels, rooming and boarding houses, and tourist courts)—Rental units consist of rooms, apartments, cabin units, and other types of lodging accommodations normally rented as a single unit. The number of rental units was tabulated only for establishments in business at the end of the year.

Revenue (presented only for tax-exempt establishments)—Revenues include total revenue from customers or clients for services rendered and merchandise sold during 1977, whether or not payment was received in 1977. Also included are income from interest, dividends, gross contributions and grants (whether or not restricted for use in operations), rents, and royalties. Revenues do not include local and State sales taxes or Federal excise taxes collected by the establishment from customers and paid directly by the establishment to a local, State, or Federal tax agency; nor do they include income from the sale of real estate, amounts transferred from capital or revenue funds to operating funds, or revenues of separately operated departments or concessions which are leased to others.

Possible duplication of revenue exists, especially between and within social service and membership organizations. This occurs in instances where a local chapter of an organization generates revenue, then passes part or all of it to another organization (possibly its headquarters), a separate legal entity, which also reports the revenue.

Single units and multiunits—A single unit is a firm with only one establishment engaged in economic activities. A multiunit, or a multiestablishment firm, is a firm with two or more establishments engaged in economic activities. A multiestablishment firm may, however, operate only one establishment classified in service industries.

Weighted average percentage of occupancy—This item is derived by computing daily average number of guestrooms occupied during the year (total guestrooms for each establishment multiplied by its percentage of occupancy) and dividing the sum of the daily averages by the total number of guestrooms in the group under consideration.

Example:

Establishments in the area	Number of guestrooms reported (1)	Annual percentage of occupancy reported (2)	Average number of rooms occupied during the year (col. 1 x col. 2) ÷ 100 (3)
Hotel A	250	80	200
Hotel B	200	70	140
Hotel C	170	60	102
Hotel D	120	90	108
	740	—	550

The weighted average percentage of occupancy for this group of hotels is 76, i.e., (550 ÷ 740 x 100).

Establishments in business less than a full year are fractionally weighted in this computation (e.g., if hotel B had been in operation for only 6 months of 1977, the value in column 1 would have been reduced to 100, the value in column 3 to 70).

Weighted average percentage of occupancy was tabulated only for establishments in business at the end of the year.

KIND-OF-BUSINESS CLASSIFICATIONS

Services, as defined in the 1972 SIC Manual, includes establishments primarily engaged in rendering a wide variety of services to individuals and business establishments.

Establishments covered by the census were assigned kind-of-business classifications in accordance with the industry classifications defined in the 1972 SIC Manual. When a more detailed classification was needed than that defined in the SIC Manual, more kinds of business were identified within an SIC. The basis for a kind-of-business classification is described above in Method of classifying kinds of business. Descriptions for those kinds of business for which data are provided in this report follow.

This major group includes organizations operating on a membership basis for the promotion of the interests of the members. Also included are organizations which are not operated on a membership basis but for the promotion of the interests of a constituency or group of supporters. This major group does not include business establishments operated by membership organizations which are elsewhere classified, such as hospitals, hotels open to the general public, golf and country clubs, fraternity and sorority houses, and credit unions. All establishments in this major group are tabulated together as tax-exempt although some kinds of organizations such as homeowners associations, auto clubs, and political organizations may not be tax-exempt. Establishments of religious organizations operated for worship or for promotion of religious activities, such as churches, convents, religion schools and missions, are classified in Religious Organizations (SIC 866) and are out of scope.

Business associations (SIC 861)—Membership organizations engaged in promoting business interests, such as better business bureaus, boards of trade, chambers of commerce, industrial standards committees, merchants associations, real estate boards, and trade associations. Farmers' cooperative marketing associations are classified in wholesale trade. Security and commodity exchanges are classified in SIC 623 and are out of scope. Civic and social businesspersons' clubs are included in Civic, Social, and Fraternal Organizations (SIC 864).

Bars and restaurants owned and operated by organizations, for members and guests only, are also classified here. Hotels and lodging houses operated by organizations for members and their guests, including fraternity and sorority houses, are classified in Organization Hotels and Lodging Houses, on Membership Basis (SIC 704). Membership sports and recreation clubs are classified in SIC 7997.

Political organizations (SIC 865)—Membership organizations established to promote the interests of a national, State, or local political party or candidate.

Miscellaneous Services (SIC Major Group 89)

This major group includes establishments engaged in performing services, not elsewhere classified, such as those rendered by engineering, architectural, and surveying services, accountants, artists, lecturers, and writers, and establishments primarily engaged in noncommercial educational, scientific, and other research activities.

Engineering, architectural, and surveying services (SIC 8911)—Establishments primarily performing professional services in the fields of architecture, engineering, and land surveying. Graphic arts and related design are classified in SIC 7333; drafting services, in SIC 7399; systems engineering or design (not computer related), in SIC 7392; and computer related systems engineering or design, in SIC 7372. Establishments primarily engaged in construction contracting are classified in construction. Landscape architects are classified in agricultural services.

For large geographic areas, data are presented for the following subdivisions of this classification:

1. Architectural services.
2. Engineering services.
3. Surveying services.

Noncommercial educational, scientific, and research organizations (SIC 892)—Establishments primarily engaged in noncommercial research into and dissemination of information for public health, education, or general welfare, such as archeological expeditions, educational research, medical research, and research institutes. Establishments included here operate primarily on funds from endowments, contributions, and grants. Establishments primarily engaged in physical research on a contract or fee (commercial) basis are included in Research and Development Laboratories (SIC 7391), and those primarily engaged in nonphysical research on a commercial basis are included in Management, Consulting, and Public Relations Services (SIC 7392).

Accounting, auditing, and bookkeeping services (SIC 893)—Establishments primarily engaged in furnishing accounting, auditing, or bookkeeping services. Such establishments may, as part of providing such service, use data processing and tabulation techniques, although those techniques do not qualify as primary activities. Establishments primarily providing income tax preparation services for individuals without accounting, auditing, and bookkeeping services are classified in Miscellaneous Personal Services (SIC 7299).

Services, not elsewhere classified (SIC 899)—Establishments primarily providing services, not elsewhere classified, such as artists (excluding commercial and medical artists), authors, scientific consultants (working on their own account), inventors, lecturers, music arrangers, newspaper columnists, radio commentators, song writers, weather forecasters, and writers. Establishments primarily providing commercial art services are classified in Commercial Photography, Art, and Graphics (SIC 7333); scientists connected with established laboratories are included in Noncommercial Educational, Scientific and Research Organizations (SIC 892), and in Miscellaneous Business Services (group 739); writers of advertising copy who also place advertising with the media are classified in Advertising Agencies (SIC 7311); business and management consultants are classified in Management, Consulting and Public Relations Services (SIC 7392); engineering consultants in Engineering, Architectural, and Surveying Services (SIC 891); computer consulting in Computer Related Services, N.E.C. (SIC 7379); and advertising consulting in Advertising Agencies (SIC 7311).

There is evidence that among nonemployer establishments (for which we obtain information from administrative records), many service establishments are coded to Services, N.E.C. (SIC 899) when there is insufficient information for more specific kind-of-business classification. Therefore, the number and receipts of nonemployer establishments in this category may not truly reflect the volume of activity among the services properly classified here.
